THE SOCIAL AFFECTIVE FOUNDATIONS OF MIND: FROM DEPRESSIVE PSYCHIC PAIN TO PRIMAL JOY

JAAK PANKSEPP

Bowling Green State University, Ohio, U.S.A.

Jaak Panksepp (born June 5, 1943) is an Estonian-born American psychologist, a psychobiologist, a neuroscientist, the Baily Endowed Chair of Animal Well-Being Science for the Department of Veterinary and Comparative Anatomy, Pharmacology, and Physiology at Washington State University's College of Veterinary Medicine, and Emeritus Professor of the Department of Psychology at Bowling Green State University. Panksepp coined the term 'affective neuroscience', the name for the field that studies the neural mechanisms of emotion. He is known in the popular press for his research on laughter in non-human animals, such as rats.
